

APPAM 40 for 40 Application

Application Due by August 15, 2018

To commemorate the 40th Annual Fall Research Conference, APPAM will honor 40 outstanding young professionals at this year's conference in Washington, D.C. These honorees will be part of a donor-funded campaign to recognize promising talent from individuals who are just starting their careers.

Any public policy researcher, academic or practitioner that is within five years of the receipt of their terminal degree is eligible for nomination. Nominees should be young professionals who have exhibited great innovation, promise, or insight in their position or through their research thus far. APPAM membership is not required of the nominee or the nominator. Preference will be given to nominees that possess some element of diversity (racial, ethnic, sexual orientation or country of origin) and have had some prior relationship with APPAM, whether it be through conference submissions, event attendance, or membership.
