2021 PhD Program Fair Space Request - March Update

The 2021 APPAM Fall Research Conference in Austin, Texas is fast approaching and APPAM is excited to host the PhD Program Fair in-person once again. The Fair is open to any policy PhD program that is interested in sharing details of their program with conference attendees, though space is limited and can be reserved on a first come, first served basis. Each space includes a six-foot, draped table with two chairs. Please submit all space requests no later than March 1, 2022. Space is complimentary for APPAM Institutional Members and $150 for non-members.

The PhD Program Fair will be held on Monday, March 28th, from 12:00 pm – 1:30 pm. A program representative is required to staff the booth for the full event time. The event is open to all student attendees not currently enrolled in a PhD program as well as any attendee who does not have a doctorate degree. A complimentary light lunch will be available to all attendees and program representatives.

To help students identify programs of interest at the Fair, please complete the information form below. This information will be listed in the event program.
