Diversity
APPAM is committed to promoting diversity and inclusion in the association. To ensure the conference meets this goal, please consider the diversity of your session, with respect to race, ethnicity, age, gender, and organizational affiliation. No session should include more than one participant with the same affiliation. Proposals that do not display diversity are likely to be rejected or significantly altered, at the discretion of the Program Committee.
New in 2021, we will be contacting all participants included in submissions to include demographic information to their participant profile. This information will confidential and only used by APPAM staff to accurately measure the progress the association has made in their diversity and inclusion efforts. The specific information will not impact a submission's review or acceptance.
