| The APPAM Forums are a series of quarterly roundtables that cover a topic of importance to the public policy community. Held across the country, the forums bring together researchers, practitioners, and policymakers. | Launched in 1981, the Journal of Policy Analysis and Management is widely recognized as a leading research journal in the field. In addition to feature research articles, JPAM offers special sections including Curriculum and Case Notes, Point/ Counterpoint, Professional Practice, and Book Reviews. *Published quarterly by John Wiley & Sons, Inc. and available in print and/or on-line access. | Fall Research Conference This is a multi-disciplinary event that attracts the highest quality research on a wide variety of important current and emerging policy and management issues. The conference is comprised of panels, roundtables, symposia, and poster presentations and is attended by nearly 2,000 academics, researchers, practitioners, and students. | Spring Conference Since 1986, the Spring Conferences have usually been devoted to topics of interest to public policy educators. Topics explored are often issues that are of concern to APPAM’s institutional members. This meeting typically draws about 100 attendees. | International Conferences The international research conferences attracts the best researchers from around the world and covers topical issues in the public policy community. This conference is held over two days and is a combination of papers and panel presentations. |
