

Digital Preliminary Program Map

The diagram below illustrates the placement of banner, full tower, and half tower ads in the digital preliminary program. Advertisers will have their choice of any of these ads on either the landing page (the first page seen when the program is opened) or the interior pages (all other pages within the program). Ads on every page will rotate each time the page is loaded by a visitor to ensure all ads have equal visibility.

